

2025 STUDENT PAPER COMPETITIONS AND OUTSTANDING SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

sponsored by the Society for the Study of Social Problems (SSSP)

PAPER SUBMISSION DEADLINE: Submission deadline for the Call for Papers and the Student Paper Competitions is 11:59 p.m. (Eastern Time) on January 31, 2025.

The Divisions are pleased to announce the 2025 Student Paper Competitions and Outstanding Scholarship Awards. In order to be considered for any of the Student Paper Competitions, applicants are required to submit their papers through the annual meeting Call for Papers, https://www.sssp1.org/2025 Call for Papers, prior to the January 31, 2025 submission deadline. This will ensure that winning papers are both designated and included in the program.

Please note that students may only submit to one division and that each division has its own deadline and submission process. Papers are not eligible for presentation or division competitions or awards/scholarships/fellowships if they have been published or accepted for publication before being submitted for consideration. Papers are not eligible if they have been presented previously at SSSP or presented or accepted for presentation at other professional meetings, unless they have been revised substantially with new data, findings, or theoretical contributions.

COMMUNITY, RESEARCH, AND PRACTICE: GRADUATE STUDENT PAPER AWARD

Deadline: 1/31/25

The Community, Research, and Practice Division announces its 2025 Graduate Student Paper Competition. Paper topics can focus on various aspects of communities, including their capacity, development, renewal, and relationship with other social issues or problems. Qualitative and quantitative empirical analyses, applied research, and theoretical papers are welcome. To be eligible for submission, a paper must not be published nor accepted for publication (but it may be submitted for publication, and it may be accepted for publication after submission). Papers must be student-authored; they may be authored by a single student or co-authored by more than one student but may not be co-authored by a faculty member or other non-student. Papers must not exceed 25 double-spaced pages (including all notes, references, and tables), and should include a brief abstract. To be eligible for the award, the author(s) must commit to present the paper at a session during the 2025 SSSP Annual Meeting in Chicago.

To be considered, submit (a) a copy of the manuscript, (b) a cover letter specifying that the paper is to be considered in the Community, Research, and Practice Division Graduate Student Paper Competition, and (c) a short letter from each author's advisor certifying the person's status as a student and including some brief comments about the research. All materials must be submitted electronically to the Annual Meeting Call for Papers on the SSSP conference website by January 31, 2025, and sent to the Committee Chair, Dr. Annette Mackey, e-mail: annette.mackay@oneonta.edu. Please note that students may only submit to one division. The winner will receive a $100 cash award, student membership and conference registration provided by the SSSP, and recognition at the SSSP awards ceremony.

COMMUNITY, RESEARCH, AND PRACTICE: COMMUNITY PARTNER PAPER AWARD

Deadline: 1/31/25

The Community, Research, and Practice Division announces its 2025 Community Partner Paper Competition. Consistent with our division's mission, this paper award is intended to recognize rigorous academic work that has practical implications for members of marginalized communities and, specifically, to celebrate community-engaged work.

Paper topics can focus on various social issues and problems related to community, such as the causes and consequences of communities' exclusion or marginalization from processes and resources, the capacities and strengths of communities and community movements, and the development and changes within communities. Qualitative and quantitative empirical analyses, applied research, and theoretical papers are welcome.

The following criteria for this award were developed based on standards of Community Based Research. Although papers do not need to meet all of these criteria, greater consideration will be given to research that demonstrates more of these criteria:

- Research questions and/or focus reflects priorities of community partners;
- Research encourages involvement of community in all aspects of research design including data collection methods to incorporate language, perspectives and experiences of participants;
- Research encourages involvement of community in analysis and writing of paper, including co-authorship with community;
- Research process provides member access to one another's expertise, demonstrating an appreciation of academic and local community knowledge;
- Results are 'owned' by the community;
- Research has consequences for guiding social action, policy or program change for community;
- Research democratizes and decolonizes the knowledge creation process by re-imagining relationships between researchers and subjects of research.

Papers may be pre-published or published in 2023-present. Papers may be coauthored by more than one faculty member, community member and/or student. Community partners are characterized by any community-based entity or representative that is outside of the academy. Papers must not exceed 25 double-spaced pages (including all notes, references, and tables), and should include a brief abstract. To be eligible for the award, the author(s) must make a commitment to present the paper at a session during the 2025 SSSP Annual Meeting in Chicago.

To be considered, submit (a) a copy of the manuscript, (b) a cover letter specifying that the paper is to be considered in the Community, Research, and Practice Division Community Partner Paper Competition, and (c) a brief letter from the community partner commenting on their role in the paper. All materials must be submitted electronically to the Annual Meeting Call for Papers on the SSSP conference website by January 31, 2025 and also sent to the Committee Chair, Dr. Urmitapa Dutta email: urmitapa_dutta@uml.edu. The winner will receive recognition at the Community, Research, and Practice Division business meeting.

COMMUNITY, RESEARCH, AND PRACTICE: STUDENT PUBLIC SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Deadline: 1/31/25

The Community, Research, and Practice Division announces its Student Public Scholarship Award. These awards seek to recognize undergraduate and graduate student research that improves public welfare, broadly understood, and/or improves the lives of research participants, and generates non-traditional scholarly products presented in a manner that is widely accessible to targeted audiences and/or the general public. Acceptable submissions include publicly disseminated works, such as Op-Eds, public media appearances, infographics, policy briefs, program evaluations, white papers, reports, translations of scientific or other scholarly findings into accessible formats, site revitalization plans, concept maps, videos, or other creative products designed to respond to and inform broader publics.

Submissions should include a brief abstract and a copy of the work. To be eligible for the award, the author(s) must commit to present the work at a session during the 2025 SSSP Annual Meeting in Chicago, and be willing to share the work on the Society for the Study of Social Problems website and related social media.

To be considered, submit (a) a copy of the work, (b) a cover letter specifying that the work is to be considered in the Community, Research, and Practice Division Public Scholarship Competition, and indicate if you are applying to the Undergraduate or Graduate Student award, and (c) a short letter from each author's advisor certifying the person's status as a student and including some brief comments about the research.

All materials must be submitted electronically to the Annual Meeting Call for Papers on the SSSP conference website by January 31, 2025, and also sent to the Committee Chair, Dr. Teresa Gonzales, email:

tgonzales3@luc.edu. Please note that students may only submit to one division. There will be one Undergraduate Student winner and one Graduate Student winner; each will receive a $100 cash award and recognition at the Community, Research, and Practice Division business meeting.

CONFLICT, SOCIAL ACTION, AND CHANGE: GRADUATE STUDENT PAPER AWARD

Deadline: 1/31/25

The Conflict, Social Action, and Change Division is excited to announce its 2025 Graduate Student Paper Award. Students are encouraged to submit empirically based papers with a theoretical contribution addressing topics pertaining to collective conflict, action, and change. Topics for submission might include but are not limited to the following themes: political conflict, repression, and violence, social movement mobilization and protest, peacebuilding and conflict transformation, criminal justice reform, resistance and norm contestation, and institutional change. The winner will receive a $200 cash award, a one-year student membership to SSSP, conference registration fees, and an electronic certificate commemorating their superb achievement.

Guidelines for submission are as follows: A paper must not yet be published or accepted for publication at the time of submission. It can, however, be under review. Papers must be authored by a current graduate student (either solely or co-authored by more than one graduate student) and may not be co-authored by a faculty member or other nonstudent. The student may not submit the same paper to more than one division.

To be considered, submit:

- a copy of the manuscript,
- a cover letter specifying that the paper is to be considered for the Conflict, Social Action, and Change Division Graduate Student Paper Competition, and
- a letter from each author's advisor or mentor certifying the person's status as a student and some brief comments about the research.

Papers should not exceed 50 doubled-spaced pages including all notes, references, and tables. Please upload your submission to both the annual meeting Call for Papers submission site AND send an electronic copy of all requested materials to the Division Chair, C Michael Awsumb at csac.sssp@gmail.com with the subject line: "CSAC 2025 Student Paper Award." The advisor's letter can arrive separately or from the graduate student directly (if separately, please use the same subject line).

CONFLICT, SOCIAL ACTION, AND CHANGE: OUTSTANDING ARTICLE AWARD

Deadline: 1/31/25

The Conflict, Social Action, and Change Division is excited to announce our Outstanding Article Award for 2025. With this award, the division aims to recognize published and pre-published work exemplary in its contributions for scholars and activists with work advancing the rigorous critical-scholarship and activist-informed understandings of the character and causes of oppression, conflict, social movements, and social change central to the division's mission. Articles on a broad range of topics are welcomed (e.g., poverty, criminal justice, social movements, mobilization and protest, political conflict, repression, violence and war, peacebuilding and conflict transformation, global inequality, labor, the environment, migration, human rights, race, gender, and sexuality-based oppression and inequality, the body, intersectionality, teaching for change, resistance and norm contestation, and institutional change); however, nominated articles should demonstrate commitment to social justice and research of, by, and/or for those most affected by social inequalities in the global world.

Guidelines for submission of nominations are as follows. Eligible articles must have been or will be published between January 1, 2020, and January 1, 2025. Single- or multiple- authored articles are accepted. Nominees must be members of SSSP. Authors are encouraged to nominate their own work. Nominations are submitted the Division Chair, C Michael Awsumb, via email at: csac.sssp@gmail.com.

Emailed nominations should be titled "CSAC 2025 Outstanding Paper Article Nomination" and include as attachments:

- a copy of the article,
- a cover letter specifying the article is to be considered for the CSAC 2025 Outstanding Article Award,

- current Vita(s) of the nominated author(s), and
- a cover letter describing the research, project, and/or work from which the publication originates and a brief biographical statement and affiliation for all authors.

Nominees and nominated articles will be reviewed and awardee(s) determined by the Outstanding Article Award Committee. The awardee(s) will receive a plaque of recognition at the Conflict Social Action and Change business meeting and be featured in the division newsletter.

CRIME AND JUSTICE: GRADUATE STUDENT PAPER AWARD

Deadline: 1/31/25

The Crime and Justice Division \(CJD\) invites submissions for its annual graduate student paper competition. Papers submitted to the CJD Student Paper Competition may be empirical or theoretical papers covering a broad range of topics in crime and justice.

Award:

The CJD winner will receive:

1. a $150 cash prize on behalf of the CJD,
2. an electronic certificate of recognition provided by the SSSP,
3. compensation covering membership dues and conference registration provided by the SSSP, and
4. recognition at the CJD divisional meeting and the SSSP awards ceremony.

Please note, if the paper is co-authored, there is only one cash award, one membership award, and one conference registration award. A recognition plaque will be provided for each co-author.

Eligibility requirements:

1. All authors are a graduate student at the time of submission to the graduate student paper competition; therefore, the paper must be student authored or student co-authored. The paper may not be co-authored with a faculty member.
2. The paper is not published or accepted for publication at the time of submission.
3. You have not submitted your paper to another SSSP division student paper competition. As per SSSP rules, you may only submit your paper to one division student paper competition.
4. Papers that have been presented previously at SSSP or presented or accepted for presentation at other professional meetings, unless they have been revised substantially with new data, findings, or theoretical contributions will not be considered.

Submission guidelines:

1. Recommended length is thirty pages or less, which includes tables, charts, figures, and bibliography; longer papers will be considered but length is one criterion of evaluation. Submissions should use 12-point font, one-inch margins, and double spacing.
2. All award-winning papers will be included in the SSSP annual meeting program; therefore, all submissions to the CJD paper competition must also be submitted through SSSP's online annual meeting Call for Papers submission portal

To submit:

E-mail the paper and a cover letter confirming eligibility to CJD Graduate Student Paper Award Committee Chair Dr. Stephani Williams, Northern Arizona University (stephani.williams@nau.edu). Please send Microsoft Word or PDF files only. The submission deadline is January 31, 2025, but early submissions are welcome and encouraged.

CRIME AND JUSTICE: SCHOLARLY ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Deadline: 1/31/25

The Crime and Justice Division (CJD) seeks nominations for its Scholarly Achievement Award.

Purpose:

The purpose of this award is to recognize and honor crime and justice members for their distinguished contributions to teaching/mentorship, scholarship, or leadership in the fields of crime and/or justice.

1. Award category one: Teaching and/or Mentoring. Be a distinguished contributor to teaching and/or mentorship in the areas of crime and/or justice, which can be demonstrated through educational achievements and various avenues of educational productivity. Includes, but is not limited to, recognition of teaching and/or mentoring through awards or other recognitions, publishing teaching and/or mentoring materials (e.g., Scholarship of Teaching and Learning in the areas of crime and/or justice), certificates of teacher training, unsolicited letters from students or community members, or community education via events or other contributions in the areas of crime and/or justice.
2. Award category two: Research and Scholarship. Be a distinguished contributor to scholarship in the areas of crime and/or justice which can be demonstrated through scholarly achievements and various avenues of scholarly productivity. Includes, but is not limited to, books, articles, reviews, technical reports, grants, and papers presented to scholarly associations.
3. Award category three: Leadership and/or Activism. Substantial leadership and/or activist contributions to the Crime and Justice Division and the SSSP, to a college/university in the areas of crime and/or justice, or to other institutions where their leadership and/or activism had a direct contribution to improving social justice responses to crime and/or justice (e.g., includes academic-community partnerships, community coalitions, government or public service).

Submission Guidelines:

1. The nominee should apply to only one award category: teaching/mentoring OR research/scholarship OR leadership/activism. Nominees who submit their application and include more than one award category will not be eligible.
2. Nominee narrative demonstrating their scholarly contributions to teaching/mentoring, research/scholarship, or leadership/activism that is no longer than 1000 words.
3. No more than two nomination letters supporting the nominee's noteworthy contributions to teaching/mentoring, research/scholarship, or leadership/activism.
4. Nominee's current CV with relevant items related to the award highlighted.

Eligibility:

The nominee must be a current member of the SSSP and the CJD.

To submit:

Please send your nomination to CJD Scholarly Achievement Award Committee Chair Dr. Lloyd Klein, LaGuardia Community College (lklein@lagcc.cuny.edu). The submission deadline is January 31, 2025, but early submissions are welcome and encouraged.

Award:

1. An engraved award plaque
2. Recognition at the annual CJD division meeting and in the CJD newsletter
3. Recognition on the Award Winner's section of SSSP's website

CRITICAL RACE AND ETHNIC STUDY: GRADUATE STUDENT PAPER AWARD

Deadline: 1/31/25

The Critical Race and Ethnic Study Division invites graduate student papers that cover any aspect within the field of race and ethnic studies to be submitted for consideration for our Graduate Student Paper Award. Authors are required to submit their papers through the annual meeting Call for Papers process as a condition for consideration. Each paper may only be submitted for consideration to one SSSP Division Graduate Student Paper Award. Papers may be empirical or theoretical, and must be single authored by the student. Papers must adhere to guidelines on the most current edition of the American Sociological Association's Style Guide. Length must not exceed 25 pages, including notes, tables, and references. Papers should be accompanied by a cover letter specifying their submission as consideration for the graduate student paper competition, addressed to CRES Co-Chair, Marta Maria Maldonado (marta.maldonado@oregonstate.edu). Nominations must be received no later than January 31, 2025. The winner will be announced in early Summer 2025. The winner will be recognized at the SSSP Awards Ceremony at the upcoming SSSP meetings and will receive an electronic certificate, a $150 honorarium, complimentary SSSP student membership, and conference registration.

CRITICAL RACE AND ETHNIC STUDY: KIMBERLÉ CRENSHAW OUTSTANDING ARTICLE AWARD

Deadline: 4/15/25

The Critical Race and Ethnic Study Division is pleased to announce its call for nominations for the 2025 Kimberlé Crenshaw Outstanding Article Award. This award recognizes the author(s) of the best research article in the study of race and ethnicity published in the past three years (2021-2024). We are especially interested in articles written from a critical race studies lens. The nomination letter should be no more than 3 pages and should explain the scholarly significance and innovations of the research article. At least one of the authors must be a member of the SSSP in order to qualify for the award, although they will not be required to present a paper at the 2025 SSSP Annual Meeting. The winner will be announced in early Summer 2025. Winner(s) will be recognized at the CRES business meeting and receive a certificate of recognition. To nominate a journal article, please email the following: 1) a copy of the article, 2) a nomination letter, and 3) contact information for the nominee(s), including e-mail, to CRES Co-Chair Marta Maria Maldonado (marta.maldonado@oregonstate.edu). Nominations must be received no later than April 15, 2025.

CRITICAL RACE AND ETHNIC STUDY: EDUARDO BONILLA-SILVA OUTSTANDING BOOK AWARD

Deadline: 4/15/25

The Critical Race and Ethnic Study Division is pleased to announce its call for nominations for the 2025 Eduardo Bonilla-Silva Outstanding Book Award. The award honors the significant theoretical and empirical contributions Eduardo Bonilla-Silva has made to understandings of contemporary race and racism. We are interested in any books that address issues of race or racism. We are especially interested in books that make an attempt to eradicate contemporary racism, either in the U.S. or on a global scale. Books must have been published within 3 years of the meeting (2021-2024). Single or multiple-authored books will be accepted. At least one of the authors must be a member of the SSSP in order to qualify for the award, although they will not be required to present the work at the 2025 Annual Meeting. The winner will be announced in early Summer 2025. Winner(s) will be recognized at our CRES business meeting and receive a certificate of recognition. Nominees should first send a letter with full publication information and a paragraph outlining the reasons for their nomination to CRES Co-chair, Marta Maria Maldonado, at marta.maldonado@oregonstate.edu. All nominating correspondence should include "Eduardo Bonilla-Silva Award Nomination" in the email subject heading. Once your nomination letter has been received, the Committee Chair will be in contact to let you know the mailing addresses to which copies of the book should be sent. Nominations must be received no later than April 15, 2025.

DISABILITY: GRADUATE STUDENT PAPER AWARD

Deadline: 1/31/25

The Disability Division is pleased to announce its 2025 Graduate Student Paper Competition. Papers may be empirical or theoretical, may concern any social aspect of disability, and should not exceed 30 double-spaced pages. Current and recent graduate students (who received their degrees after May 2023) may submit a paper if it was written while still a student. Co-authored papers are acceptable if all listed authors are current graduate students. Double submission to other SSSP award competitions will be disqualified. Applicants must submit their papers through the annual meeting Call for Papers process as a condition for consideration for the award, and the award recipient will be required to present the winning paper at a Disability Division-sponsored session at the 2025 SSSP Annual Meeting. The recipient will receive a monetary prize of $150, a one-year student membership in SSSP, SSSP 2025 conference registration, an electronic certificate of recognition, and recognition at the conference awards ceremony. Please send an electronic copy of your paper (in Word format) and a cover letter identifying your graduate program to: Colleen Kavanagh at cxk462@case.edu.

DRINKING AND DRUGS: GRADUATE STUDENT PAPER AWARD

Deadline: 1/31/25

The Drinking and Drugs Division invites graduate students to apply for the 2025 Bruce D. Johnson Student Paper Award. The first place winner will receive a $100 stipend, an electronic certificate of recognition, student membership in SSSP for one year, registration for the 2025 Annual Meeting, and be recognized at the 2025 SSSP Annual Meeting. Papers under consideration must present original research (empirical and/or theoretical) related to drinking and/or drugs.

To be eligible, entrants must be currently enrolled in a graduate degree program and have not yet received a Ph.D., J.D., or M.D. degree at the time of submission. Applicants must have sole/primary responsibility for preparation of the paper. Please note, if the paper is co-authored, there is only one cash award, one membership award, and one conference registration award. Self-nominations are permitted. Recommended length is thirty pages or less, which includes tables, charts, figures, and bibliography. Submissions should use 12-point font, one-inch margins, and double spacing. The Division reserves the right to identify additional prizes or to not award a first-place winner at its discretion. Applicants should send an electronic copy of the paper (that does not indicate their name) and a cover letter identifying the title of the paper, the author's name and contact information, and the accredited graduate program where the applicant is a student by 1/31/25 to Dr. Honoria Guarino (honorio.guarino@sph.cuny.edu). Please note that in order to be considered for an award, applicants are also required to submit their papers online through the annual meeting Call for Papers. This will ensure that winning papers are included in the program. Please be aware that per SSSP rules a paper submission may only be made to one Division's student paper competition.

EDUCATIONAL PROBLEMS: GRADUATE STUDENT PAPER AWARD

Deadline: 1/31/25

The Educational Problems Division announces its 2025 Graduate Student Paper Competition. Papers must address a contemporary educational problem and may be empirical or theoretical in nature. Authors must be current graduate students. In addition to single-authored papers, co-authored papers will be considered for this award if co-authors are graduate students but not co-authored with a faculty member or colleague who is not a student. Papers are not eligible for this award if they have been published or accepted for publication before being submitted for consideration. Papers are not eligible if they have been presented previously at SSSP or presented or accepted for presentation at other professional meetings, unless they have been revised substantially with new data, findings, or theoretical contributions. Papers must not exceed 30 double-spaced pages (excluding notes, references, tables, and figures). All papers must include a 150-200 word abstract and be prepared for anonymous review with the author's name and institutional affiliation appearing only on the title page. Authors are required to submit their papers through the annual meeting Call for Papers process as a condition for consideration for the award. Students may only submit to one division.

All papers must also be submitted electronically (as a PDF attachment) to the Division Chair, Dr. Kyla Walters at kyla.walters@sonoma.edu with the following e-mail subject line: SSSP Educational Problems Student Paper Nomination. Please include your name, institutional affiliation, and contact information in the body of your e-mail. The paper should be submitted no later than 11:59pm (Eastern Time), January 31, 2025.

Award:

1. An electronic certificate of recognition
2. A modest cash stipend
3. Student membership in the SSSP
4. Conference registration to the 2025 SSSP Annual Meeting

5. Recognition at the annual meeting Awards Ceremony
6. Recognition at the annual Educational Problems division meeting
7. Recognition in the Educational Problems special edition newsletter
8. Recognition on the SSSP's website under award winners

EDUCATIONAL PROBLEMS: OUTSTANDING BOOK AWARD

Deadline: 3/1/25

The Educational Problems Division announces its Outstanding Book Award. The award will be geared toward division members on their first book. The goal is to award an early career scholar and those who recently turned their dissertation into a book or recently published their first book. The hope is to support their professional journey whether it is toward tenure or a career outside the academy.

To be eligible for consideration, books must have been published within 3 years of the meeting (2022-2025 for this year's award) and not have been nominated for this award previously. Single or multi-authored books and edited collections will be considered. Books must address a contemporary educational problem and may be empirical or theoretical in nature. At least one of the authors must be a member of the SSSP to qualify for the award, although they will not be required to present a paper at the 2025 SSSP Annual Meeting. Nominations can be made by members of the Educational Problems division as well as by publishers; self-nominations are welcome.

Nominees should send a 1-page letter with full publication information and a paragraph outlining the reasons for their nomination to Dr. Kyla Walters at kyla.walters@sonoma.edu with "SSSP Educational Problems Outstanding Book Award Nomination" in the e-mail subject line. Once your nomination letter has been received, Kyla will confirm the mailing addresses to which copies of the book should be sent directly. Committee members choose whether they want a physical or electronic copy of the book. Authors or nominators will be responsible for facilitating copies of a physical and/or an electronic copy of the book (if available) from the publishers to be sent to each member of the award committee by the nomination deadline of 11:59pm (Pacific Time), March 1, 2025.

Award:

1. An award certificate
2. Recognition at the annual Educational Problems division meeting
3. Recognition in the Educational Problems special edition newsletter
4. Recognition on the SSSP's website under award winners

EDUCATIONAL PROBLEMS: CONTRIBUTION OF THE DISCIPLINE AWARD

Deadline: 2/15/25

The Educational Problems Division announces its Contribution to the Discipline Award. This award will be teaching/mentoring geared toward academic ranks of full or associate professors and nonacademic hires who are doing meaningful work, namely in their teaching, mentoring, advising, etc. Nominees should demonstrate achievements through various avenues of teaching and/or mentorship via innovative practices, receipt of awards or other recognitions, publishing on mentoring, publishing on teaching, certificates of teacher training, unsolicited letters from students/mentees or community members, community education via events, and/or other contributions in the areas of education.

Assistant professors may apply, but this award aims to recognize contributors who have been working in the field for many years and are thus more likely to be in a career place where they can focus on teaching and/or mentoring. The purpose of the Contribution to the Discipline Award is to highlight members doing great work advancing pedagogy, and mentoring undergraduate, graduate students, as well other faculty. This award is not limited to division members with academic careers or positions.

Criteria:

1. Nominee narrative demonstrating contributions to teaching/mentoring, no longer than 1,000 words.
2. No more than two nomination letters supporting the nominee's noteworthy contributions to teaching/mentoring.
3. Nominee's current CV with relevant items related to the award highlighted.

Eligibility:

The nominee must be a current member of the SSSP and Educational Problems division. To submit: Please send your nomination to Dr. Kyla Walters at kyla.walters@sonoma.edu with “SSSP Educational Problems Contribution to the Discipline Nomination” in the e-mail subject line. Nominations can be made by members of the Educational Problems division as well as other SSSP members; self-nominations are accepted. The submission deadline is 11:59pm (Pacific Time), February 15, 2025, but early submissions are welcome and encouraged.

Award:

1. An award certificate
2. Recognition at the annual Educational Problems division meeting
3. Recognition in the Educational Problems special edition newsletter
4. Recognition on the SSSP’s website under award winners

FAMILY, AGING, AND YOUTH: MAGGIE KUHN AWARD FOR SCHOLAR-ACTIVISTS

Deadline: 1/31/25

The Family, Aging, and Youth Division encourages members to submit nominations for the Maggie Kuhn Award for Scholar-Activists.

Maggie Kuhn was the founder of the Gray Panthers, an intergenerational social justice organization. The Maggie Kuhn Award, established in 2014, is awarded to a scholar-activist who upholds the ideals of social and economic justice and peace for individuals of all ages, in both their scholarship and service. These ideals include, but are not limited to, honoring age, intergenerational work, and scholarship and/or activism that promotes a humane society by putting the needs of people over profits, responsibility over power, and democracy over institutions. The award recipient will be publicly announced at the Family, Aging, and Youth 2025 Division Meeting (held at the annual conference) and receive a monetary prize of $150 to be shared with a community organization of their choice. For more information or to nominate a scholar-activist, please e-mail Division Co-Chair Brittney Miles at bsmiles@illinois.edu.

GLOBAL: GRADUATE STUDENT PAPER AWARD

Deadline: 1/31/25

The Global Division announces its 2025 Graduate Student Paper Competition. The goal is to encourage critical scholarship in global studies and social problems. Although the concept of global encompasses an array of subject areas, paper topics must have a global focus and may include but are not limited to the following themes: • Global South Epistemology • Global Environmental and Climate Justice; Global Social Theory • Political Economy and Development • COVID-19, Health, and the Global South • Global Capital and Local Struggles • Knowledge Production • Neoliberalism and the Global South • Counterhegemonic Globalizations • The Politics of Human Rights • Critical Ethnography • Immigration, Citizenship, and Global Justice • Global Movements, Protests, and Mobilizations • Global Public Sociology • Transnational Organizing within the Global South • Labor and Gender in Globalization • Families in the Global Context • Global Poverty • Displacement and Discontents • Global Movements

Jointly authored papers are accepted; however, all contributing authors must be current graduate students at the time of submission for this award. The award recipient will receive student membership in the SSSP, conference registration at the 2025 Annual SSSP Meeting, an electronic certificate of recognition, be recognized at the SSSP Awards Ceremony, and receive a $200 prize. Award recipients are expected to present their papers at the 2025 SSSP Annual Meeting. Papers should be accompanied by a cover letter specifying their submission as consideration for the 2025 Graduate Student Paper Competition to the Chair of the Global Division: Caitlin Schroering (cschroer@charlotte.edu).

Please submit the paper electronically in a format compatible with MS WORD. Papers should be double-spaced and not exceed 10,000 words, including citations. Authors should ensure that they receive a confirmation of receipt for their submission. Note: previous winners of this award are ineligible to compete, and students may only submit their paper to one division competition. To be eligible for consideration, submissions must be uploaded to the Call for Papers online submission system for the SSSP Annual Meeting and sent to the chair of the division Caitlin Schroering at cschroer@charlotte.edu by January 31, 2025.

GLOBAL: OUTSTANDING BOOK AWARD

Deadline: 3/1/25

The Global Division is pleased to announce its 2025 Outstanding Book Award. The award is intended to recognize published work of exceptional quality in the areas of global studies and social problems and to encourage critical scholarship in these areas. Books on a variety of topics and themes of global relevance will be considered for the award, including but not limited to the following: alternative models of globalization; global dynamics and forms of resistance to neoliberalism; transnational social movements; human rights struggles and global activism (around gender, indigeneity, migration, peace, social justice, etc.); transnational communities and cultural politics; global cities; global environmental/climate justice; global theory; global capital and local struggles. We are particularly interested in books that make critical contributions to our understanding of global political/social/economic/cultural/environmental dynamics.

To be eligible for consideration, books must have been published within 3 years of the meeting (2022-2025 for this year's award) and not have been nominated for this award previously. Single or multiple-authored books will be accepted; however, edited collections will not be considered. At least one of the authors must be a member of the SSSP to qualify for the award, although they will not be required to present a paper at the 2025 SSSP Annual Meeting. Nominations can be made by members of the Global Division as well as by publishers; self-nominations are also welcome. The winner will be recognized at the 2025 Global Division business meeting.

Nominees should first send a letter with full publication information and a paragraph outlining the reasons for their nomination to Caitlin Schroering at cschroer@charlotte.edu. All nominating correspondence should include "SSSP Global Division Outstanding Book Award Nomination" in the e-mail subject heading. Once your nomination letter has been received, Caitlin Schroering will confirm the mailing addresses to which copies of the book should be sent directly. Authors will be requested to facilitate with their publishers that both a physical and an electronic copy of the book (if available) be sent to each member of the award committee by the nomination deadline of March 1, 2025.

HEALTH, HEALTH POLICY, AND HEALTH SERVICES: GRADUATE STUDENT PAPER AWARD

Deadline: 1/31/25

The Health, Health Policy, and Health Services Division invites graduate students to apply for its annual Graduate Student Paper Award. Papers should be related to the broad Division interest, including health and illness, health policy, and health services. Current graduate students and recent graduates who received their degrees after January 2024 may submit a paper if it was written while a student. Papers based on theses or dissertations are acceptable. Co-authored papers are acceptable as long as all listed authors were graduate students at the time the paper was written. Submission to other SSSP award competitions will disqualify the submission. The award recipient will present a version of the winning paper at a session of the 2025 SSSP Annual Meeting. Therefore, the paper must also be submitted through the annual meeting's online submission portal (see the Call for Papers) for presentation at the conference by the conference submission deadline.

The recipient will receive a monetary prize of $150, an electronic certificate of recognition, student membership to SSSP, and conference registration. The winner will be recognized at the Division Meeting as well as the SSSP Awards Ceremony. Send an electronic copy of the paper and a cover letter identifying your graduate program and verifying that you meet the eligibility criteria to Virginia Kuulei Berndt (virginia.berndt@mcdaniel.edu) and Raja Staggers-Hakim (raja.staggers-hakim@uconn.edu) by January 31, 2025. The paper submission should not exceed 30 double-spaced pages (including references) and should be prepared for anonymous review. Please include the author's information only on a separate title page document.
